Stars can't get enough of Juicy

Now celebs really can wear Juicy Couture from head to toe! First, the company's now-infamous track suits kicked off the West Coast casual craze, then the brand's charm bracelets became a celeb obsession. And now Juicy Couture is unveiling its first sunglasses collection — just in time for spring. The 21 different styles range from Jessica Simpson's oversize plastic pair to Kelly Clarkson's classic aviators. Cameron Diaz, Katie Holmes and both Kelly Rowland and Michelle Williams of Destiny's Child were also among the first to scoop up the new styles. $185-$260, solsticestores.com.
