Clean sweep: Some of Hollywood's freshest beauties find this citrus mix intoxicating.

KEEP IT CLEAN: And now fragrance for the less-is-more crowd. Natural women like Courteney Cox Arquette, Charlize Theron, Cameron Diaz and Jamie-Lynn Sigler are going for Clean ($76), a pair of scents based on orange, sweet lime and pink grapefruit that hits select stores this month. Makes us think of cocktails, but Sigler says it's perfectly innocent: "I smell like I just showered with my favorite soap." (Call it Meadow-fresh.) . . .

SEA AND BE SEEN: How did Sex in the City's Kim Cattrall get that luminous look on Grammy night? Nick Barose did the trick with products from La Mer. First, he slathered her with La Mer body lotion ($135), topped with a little M.A.C iridescent powder. Then came a spritz of La Mer, the Mist ($50), a hydrating potion that gave her skin a healthy sheen. With that chain-mail mini from Michael Kors, Cattrall was ready to glow. . . .

GOODY GIRL: Not only did she nab a Grammy for Cry, but Faith Hill was the big winner when it came to gift bags too. Besides the lavish assortment of goodies ($20,000 worth) that other nominees took home, the mother of three collected some charming extras. Daisy Rock sent mini-guitars ($325) for her daughters Gracie, Maggie and Audrey, while Underglam dispatched custom-made panties ($28) with Hill's and her kids' names in crystals. Whirly Girl delivered a silver charm bracelet engraved with her girls' names ($450), and Invicta threw in a $3,000 diamond watch. (Nothing for Tim McGraw, but he's the guy who has it all.)

Hill's haul included an Invicta diamond watch, just for Mom.

Faith Hill

Sex star Kim Cattrall found a new way to highlight her assets.
